Summer Guide

OUTDOOR DINING

OUTDOOR DINING

Five Front

5 Front St , Brooklyn , NY , 11201

New American on the Waterfront in Brooklyn with a great outdoor patio

202 Café

75 Ninth Avenue ; (646) 638-1173

Shop for hip clothes between courses at this great Meatpacking brunch spot.

A Voce

41 Madison Ave; 212-545-8555

Modern Italian just off Madison Square Park

Applewood

501 11th St. (bet. 7th & 8th Aves.); 718-768-2044

Cozy New-American in Park Slope with sidewalk seating and a great brunch!

Alma

187 Columbia St., at Degraw St., Red Hook, Brooklyn; 718-643-5400

A restaurant in Red Hook made for romance: Start with a mojito, stuffed with mint and served in a latte-size glass, and end with the just-as-fresh Key-lime pie. Service is spacey, but we like to think that the slow pace ups the tropical factor.

August

359 Bleecker St; Phone: 212-929-4774

Romantic West Village spot with robust European cuisine. Perfect for a date or casual night out with friends.

OUTDOOR DINING

Aurora

70 Grand St. (Wythe Ave.) 718-388-5100\

Cozy rustic Italian in Brooklyn with magical garden in the back

Barolo

398 W. Broadway, nr. Spring St.; 212-226-1102

Barolo is touristy, but it has the kind of tourists you want at a ristorante—Italian ones, seeking a slice of la dolce vita.

Barbuto

775 Washington St.; 212-924-9700

Market driven Italian, in a converted garage with a hip industrial vibe in the far West Village

Bar Pitti

Next to Da Silvano, 268 Avenue of the Americas; 212.982.3300

Da Silvano's more casual next door neighbor, this Italian joint is perfect for people watching and drinking Chianti under the stars.

Blue Hill at Stone Barns

630 Bedford Rd., Pocantico Hills, N.Y.; 914-366-9600

It's not quite The Omnivore's Dilemma, Michael Pollan's quest to physically track down every last ingredient of four meals, but Blue Hill at Stone Barns is about as close as most city folk are going to get. Arrive an hour early for the self-guided audio tour of the greenhouse and farm and give a carnivorous nod of thanks to the happy hogs and free-range chickens.

Bryant Park Grill

25 W. 40th St.; 212-840-6500

If you're looking to have lunch in Bryant Park and want something a little more substantial than 'wichcraft, BPG's not bad and the only way to go.

OUTDOOR DINING

Bottino

246 Tenth Ave. 212-206-6766

Casual Italian in West Chelsea attracting artists and trend setters to the back, plant filled garden.

Bohemian Hall and Beer Garden

29-19 24th Ave., Astoria; 718-274-4925

The last of the nearly 800 biergartens that once dotted the pre-Prohibition city. Go for the Staropramen on tap and (when available) the Czech Gambrinus; stay for the live polka.

Café St. Barts

109 E. 50th; 212.593.3333

The food is consistent here at this pleasant summer patio destination, next to St. Bart's church.

Da Silvano

260 6th Avenue; 212.982.2343

This hot Greenwich Village Italian spot's sidewalks are flanked with models and the like. Try the white sangria on a hot summer night.

La Bottega

On the terrace of the Maritime Hotel, 88 Ninth Ave., at 17th St.; 212-243-8400

An engaging wait staff and pleasing patio fare: golden sardines, crunchy artichokes in white-truffle oil, and chicken under a brick.

Brooklyn Botanic Garden

1000 Washington Ave., at Crown St., Park Slope; 718-623-7200

Spring for the $40 annual membership fee, if only for the Wednesday-evening picnicking privileges: Cheese-and-charcuterie specialist Blue Apron Foods is just two blocks away (814 Union St., at Seventh Ave.; 718-230-3180).

OUTDOOR DINING

Central Park Boathouse

Park Drive North at 72nd Street; 212-517-2233

Although tourists—and tourist prices—will always be a fact of the Boathouse, it's worth reconsidering. Not only are the rowboats still lovely, but there's recently been an ambitious menu makeover. Making reservations for a party of four is the best bet for snagging a lakeside table.

Elizabeth

265 Elizabeth St (between Houston and Prince), 212-334-2426

Nolita's newest small plates spot with a retractable roof.

Empire-Fulton Ferry State Park

At the foot of New Dock Street, Dumbo, Brooklyn; 718-858-4708

Picnic with a pie from Grimaldi's (19 Old Fulton St., nr. Water St.; 718-858-4300)

5 Ninth

5 Ninth Ave., at Gansevoort St.; 212-929-9460

At the back of a stately brownstone on the most frenzied corner of the city's most frenzied neighborhood is Eden: a rose garden hemmed in by ivy-covered walls. Chef Zak Pelaccio's peas-and-bacon dish is justifiably famous, and his newest, tempura lobster with ginger, will be, too.

Gavroche

212 W. 14th St., at Seventh Ave.; 212-647-8553

It's on a scummy stretch of 14th Street, but out back, under the stars and beside the multitiered fountain, Gavroche feels like France. The fare is refreshingly straightforward, especially the goat-cheese tart, frites, and Belgian-chocolate gâteau.

OUTDOOR DINING

Le Jardin Bistro

25 Cleveland Pl , New York , NY , 10012

Simple French pleasures in a stellar setting.

Habana Outpost

757 Fulton St., at S. Portland Ave., Fort Greene, Brooklyn; 718-858-9500

The popular Nolita diner Habana has a Brooklyn spinoff (next to the Lafayette Avenue C-train stop) that's even better than the original. The scene is part restaurant, part block party—and drinks are served out of a down-home 1949 GMC pickup truck.

Harry's LIC at Water Taxi Beach

2-03 Borden Ave., Long Island City; 212-742-1969

With sand trucked in from Jersey, the beach here is as real as a spray-on tan. But who cares? It's worth a visit just for the sheer novelty of it all: beach volleyball, stellar views of midtown, and dirt-cheap PBR longnecks.

L'Impero

45 Tudor City Plaza; 212.599.5045

Upscale Italian with a great patio for summer dining in the front

Leo's Latticini

46-02 104th St., Corona; 718-898-6069

Called Mama's by the borough's cops and firefighters, the tiny provolone-scented food shop has been serving possibly the best Italian sub in the city since the thirties. And now you can eat one in the new back garden—next to a statue of Saint Francis.

OUTDOOR DINING

Loreley Biergarten

7 Rivington St., nr. Chrystie St.; 212-253-7077

It's not as authentic as the Bohemian (see No. 4), but Bowery traffic is far away, the savory sausages have just the right snap, and if you go early, you'll hear "Grüß dich!" more than "Hey dude!" Get a Kölsch: It's served in a slim glass, like champagne.

Max

51 Avenue B, Btwn 3rd & 4th St ; 212-539-0111

One of my favorite Italian spots with the best lasagna in town, just opened up their cozy back patio.

Morandi

211 Waverly Pl; (212) 627-7575

Keith McNally's shot at Italy has the perfect patio for prosecco and proscuitto.

Ono

18 Ninth Ave. (13th St.)

Go for the drinks, not the food at this Gansevoort Hotel hot spot.

Pampano

209 E. 49th St., nr. Third Ave.; 212 751-4545

Falstaffian tenor Plácido Domingo's midtown Mexican gem offers two outdoor options: There's a tranquil second-story terrace (a miracle on noisy 49th Street) and, in the office building next door, Pampano Taqueria for takeout—eat it at the pocket park on 51st near Third Avenue.

Paradou

8 LW 12th; 212.463.8345

Quaint French cuisine in Meatpacking with lovely patio.

OUTDOOR DINING

Pastis

9 Ninth Ave. (Little W. 12th St.); 212-929-4844

Always a scene at this Meatpacking hotspot.

Patroon

160 E. 46th St.; 212.883.7373

Great new American food, wonderful service, excellent outside area on the roof top. New decoration is perfect for entertaining business .

PJ Clarke's on the Hudson

4 World Financial Center; 212.285.1500

Legendary burgers and Guinness overlooking the Statue of Liberty

River Café

1 Water St , Brooklyn , NY , 11201

Seafood at one of New York's truly stunning settings.

Raoul's

180 Prince St.; 212-966-3518

One of my favorite French spots in town; request a table on the romantic back patio

Shake Shack

Madison Square Park, enter at 23rd Street and Madison Avenue; 212-889-6600

Overhyped and overrun, but still deserving of a spot on this list.

OUTDOOR DINING

Smith Street - Gowanus Yacht Club, Grocery, Robin des Bois

Carroll Gardens, Brooklyn

To the chagrin of a couple of curmudgeonly residents—and to the delight of the rest of us—Smith Street has blossomed into an outdoor diner’s paradise. Check out the picnic tables at the Gowanus Yacht Club (323 Smith St., at President St.; 718-246-1321), the lovely backyard at Grocery (288 Smith St., nr. Union St.; 718-596-3335), and the quirky patio at Robin des Bois (195 Smith St., nr. Warren St.; 718-596-1609).

Stone Street – Adrienne’s, Financier Patisserie, Brouwers

The financial district

The cobblestoned restaurant row has some superior spots with sidewalk tables: Adrienne’s for deep-dish pizza (54 Stone St., nr. Hanover St.; 212-248-3838), French comfort food at the Financier Patisserie (62 Stone St., at Mill Ln.; 212-344-5600), and Brouwers (45 Stone St.; 212-785-5400), a fish restaurant.

Terrace 5

Inside MoMA, 11 W. 53rd St., nr. Fifth Ave.; 212-708-9400

With a vast overhang that could keep diners dry in a hurricane, Terrace 5 is open rain or shine. If you need a quickie, try the gelato cart in the sculpture garden instead.

Tree

190 First Avenue; 212.358.7171

Quaint French in East Village with surprisingly spacious back patio.

Trestle on 10th

242 10th Avenue; 212.645.5659

Unusual Swiss cuisine in the heart of West Chelsea – lovely back patio.

OUTDOOR DINING

The Yard

Next to the Soho Grand, 310 W. Broadway, nr. Grand St.; 212-965-3588

A little slice of suburbia in what used to be a service corridor running between West Broadway and Thompson Street: With an outdoor grill, humongous margaritas, and dogs rolling around in the grass, it's a nonstop backyard barbecue party for the whole neighborhood.

Vento

675 Hudson Street ; 212-699-2400

Classic Italian in the meatpacking district with one of the biggest outdoor patios in town.

Vespa Restaurant

1625 2nd Ave , New York , NY , 10028

Funky European-style restaurant, lounge and wine bar serves Italian-Mediterranean fare in cozy, eclectic dining room or coveted outdoor garden patio.

Waverly Inn and Garden

16 Bank St.

Dine under the stars at Graydon's West Village hot-spot

OUTDOOR DRINKING

BEST BARS FOR DRINKING UNDER THE STARS

Salon de Ning

Peninsula Hotel

700 5th Avenue (at 55th Street)

212. 903.3097

Expensive drinks, but the views are worth it!

The Pooldeck

4 W. 63rd Street

212.265.7400

Bi-level roof bar at the Empire Hotel – there's a pool area upstairs and cabanas downstairs.

Highbar

251 West 48th Street (near 8th Avenue)

212.956.1300

Cheese factor could be high, but it's convenient for after work, and they have an outdoor grill for burgers, dogs etc. which might cancel out any hesitation due to too many guys with hair gel.

Metropolitan Museum of Art Rooftop

1000 5th Avenue (at 82nd Street)

212.570.3820

Not new, but Jeff Koons is currently on display – doesn't get much cooler than that.

BEST BARS FOR DRINKING UNDER THE STARS

Studio B

259 Banker Street
Brooklyn
718.389.1880

From the minds behind the Delancey, this Greenpoint spot with a retractable roof will be this summer's hipster hotspot.

Eden

268 West 47th Street
212.398.3800

Times Square....yes, but this newly remodeled spot that used to be Jade Terrace could be good for after work. I'd say avoid "St. Tropez Thursdays"

Brass Monkey

530 West 27th Street
Yes, they now have a roofdeck...yay!

230 Fifth

230 Fifth Ave., twentieth fl., between 26th and 27th Sts.; 212-725-4300
The cities largest rooftop bar.

A60

60 Thompson, 60 Thompson St., between Spring and Broome Sts.; 877-431-0400
Hotelier Jason Pomeranc's elegant members-only rooftop bar is one of my favorite spots for outdoor cocktails.

6 Columbus

6 Columbus Circle

Uber chic uptown rooftop bar....coming soon.

AVA Penthouse

210 W 55th St; (212) 956-7020

Great after-work rooftop at the Dream hotel. Easy to get a reservation.

B-Bar & Grill

40 E 4th St , New York , NY , 10003-7004

I know its been around forever, but I do still love this patio in the summer time.

Boat Basin Café

W 79th St , New York , NY , 10024

Seasonal outdoor dining spot where the views and the pub-grub eats just don't get any better.

Bohemian Hall Beer Garden

29-19 24th Ave , Astoria , NY , 11102

The last of its kind, this old Astoria landmark beer garden soldiers on.

Bookmarks

Library Hotel, 299 Madison Ave., at 41st St.; 212-983-4500

Perfect for after work, the terrace of the Library Hotel's rooftop bar could pass for the patio of an Upper East Side townhouse.

BEST BARS FOR DRINKING UNDER THE STARS

Cabana or La Bottega at the Maritime Hotel

Maritime Hotel, 363 W. 16th St., nr. Ninth Ave.; 212-242-4300

An old standby yes, but still fun and easy to snag a table if you arrive early enough.

The Delancey

168 Delancey St., at Clinton St.; 212-254-9920

THE outdoor spot for LES hipsters.

Hudson Terrace

621 46th St, .212-228-4200 x8003

Owner Sean McGarr (Webster Hall) has transformed a stable into a glittering 13,000sf event space, 4,000 of which will be a semi-enclosed mahogany rooftop terrace with views of the Hudson and water-mists for cooling off. Other amenities include an outdoor fireplace, ceiling video chandeliers with customized Swarovski crystals, reclaimed wood from a sunken WWII ship and AC/heat-controlled floors.

Hudson Sky Terrace and Private Park

The Hudson Hotel, 356 W. 58th St., between Eighth and Ninth Aves.; 212-554-6303

Hate the hotel, but do still love the bars...

The Garden of Ono

Between Little West 12th Street and 13th Street

The bamboo-filled outdoor gardens are the restaurant/bars most coveted see-and-be-seen seating in warmer months

BEST BARS FOR DRINKING UNDER THE STARS

Gramercy Hotel Rooftop

2 Lexington Ave, 866-784-1300

Masterminded by New York's hotelier prince Ian Schrager and bathed in the rosy, luxurious glow that haloes all of Mr. Schnabel's artistic endeavors, this stunning indoor/outdoor space is one of THE BEST new york rooftops, hands down.

Heights Bar and Grill

2867 Broadway, 212-866-7035

Columbia students drink their cares away at this second-story Morningside Heights bar.

Local West

1 Penn Pl., Eighth Ave. at 33rd St.; 212-629-7070

If you are looking for a spot pre-game or post-concert near Penn Station, this is it.

Luna Park

Middle of Union Square

Fun, casual outdoor bar in the middle of Union Square with killer margaritas!

Me Bar

17 W. 32nd St., between Broadway and Fifth Ave.; fourteenth fl.; 212-290-2460

Yes, its on top of the La Quinta in Koreatown, but its usually not too crowded and close to work for lots of people.

The Park

118 Tenth Ave., between 17th and 18th Sts.; 212-352-3313

Will someone please make this place cool again??? I just love it.

BEST BARS FOR DRINKING UNDER THE STARS

Plunge

Hotel Gansevoort, 18 Ninth Ave., at 13th St.; 877-426-7386

Usually horribly crowded and cheesy, but if you are in Meatpacking and in need of a rooftop, this is it :)

Rare View

Shelburne Murray Hill, 303 Lexington Ave., at 37th St.; 212-481-1999

Perfect for twenty something Murray Hill revelers.

Rise at the Ritz-Carlton, Battery Park

2 West St., 14th fl, 917-790-2626

Located on the fourteenth floor of the Ritz Carlton in Battery Park, this award-winning and aptly named bar boasts one of the most dramatic locations in the city.

BEST BARS FOR DRINKING UNDER THE STARS

Sky Garden

530 W 27th St
The new BED.

Soho House Rooftop

29-35 Ninth Ave, 212-627-9800

If you are lucky enough to have a membership (or a friend with one) and you're looking to rub elbows with celebs, the ultra-exclusive membership and intimate pooldeck is your spot for soaking in summer rays.

The Terrace at Sutton Place Bar and Restaurant

1015 Second Ave., between 53rd and 54th Sts.; 212-207-3777
Great rooftop bar, ok food, really preppy crowd.

White Horse Tavern

Hudson and W. 11th.
Casual beers and sidewalk picnic tables at this local West Village watering hole.

Shakespeare in the Park

NOTE: New system for getting tickets!

The Public Theater is launching a new program for its 2008 summer productions of Hamlet and Hair that will offer patrons the option of entering their names into a ticket waiting list on the Public Theater website.

The Public Theater has announced that Shakespeare in the Park tickets will no longer be available at their Lafayette Street home. Patrons who wish to attend productions for Shakespeare in the Park must line up at the Delacorte in Central Park or enter the online drawing to catch Hamlet and Hair.

With the new virtual line, the Public allows individuals who are registered at the Public Theater website to log on and submit a day-of request for tickets beginning at 12 AM ET. Each individual entry is able to request up to two tickets for that day's performance. At 1 PM registered users can log on to the Public website to see if their names have been randomly selected. The day-of tickets will be held at the Delacorte box office.

May 27-June 29: HAMLET

Hamlet – starring Michael Stuhlbarg, Sam Waterston, Lauren Ambrose, Andre Braugher and Margaret Colin – is the first summer offering at the Delacorte, running.

July 22-Aug. 17: HAIR

The second production is a fully mounted revival of Hair. Diane Paulus returns to direct the cast of the 2007 Delacorte concert staging that includes Jonathan Groff, Will Swenson, Patina Renea Miller and Allison Case.

OTHERS CONCERTS TO HIT (according to Time Out NY)

Vampire Weekend + Kid Sister + Born Ruffians

WHERE: Central Park SummerStage

WHEN: Sat, Jun 14, 4–8pm

COST: FREE

Brave the throngs; this one's a no-brainer. The season's biggest indie buzz magnet (and deservedly so), a Kanye-approved femcee from Chicago, plus a nervy, new-wavey Toronto trio—all on a Saturday afternoon—add up to eclectic party time.

Gogol Bordello

WHERE: McCarren Park Pool

WHEN: Fri, Jun 20, 6pm

COST: $35

The local Gypsy-punk outfit knows how to work a crowd, and its high-energy stage show will likely make your fellow revelers a little crazy—so use caution when venturing into the area in front of the stage.

Rachid Taha + Dengue Fever

WHERE: Central Park SummerStage

WHEN: Sat, Jul 5, 3pm

COST: FREE

Even if you don't understand the languages here (Taha is French-Algerian; Dengue Fever singer Chhom Nimol is Cambodian), you'll recognize the beats as pure danceable rock.

OTHERS CONCERTS TO HIT Cont.

Wordless Music presents Deerhoof + Metropolis Ensemble: Stravinsky's The Rite of Spring

WHERE: Celebrate Brooklyn at the Prospect Park Bandshell

WHEN: Fri, July 18, 7:30pm

COST: FREE

Wordless Music is known for its oddball pairings. Here, Stravinsky's Rite sets the stage for the Bay Area art-pop darlings.

JellyNYC Pool Parties with Black Lips + Deerhunter + King Khan and the Shrines

WHERE: McCarren Park Pool

WHEN: Sun, Aug 3, 2pm

COST: FREE

The JellyNYC Pool Parties have become a big draw for young New Yorkers, both for the music—today's show features three scruffy, aptly weird rock bands—and other summer frills such as Slip 'N Slide, dodgeball and ice cream.

Dirty Projectors + White Williams

WHERE: South Street Seaport, Pier 17

WHEN: Fri, Aug 15, 7pm

COST: FREE

The Seaport can feel like a small open-air club if you stake out a good spot—worth it to soak up the Projectors' ethereal avant-pop

White Williams's kaleidoscopic dance-rock.

Battles + Black Dice + Gang Gang Dance

WHERE: Central Park SummerStage

WHEN: Sat, Aug 16, 3–7pm

COST: FREE

After modern tribalists Gang Gang Dance and the noise-electronics of Black Dice tenderize the kids, future-rock bashers Battles will electrify them by waging sonic war. Earplugs might be a good idea.
